

WATERBROOK

2012
SANGIOVESE ROSÉ

88
POINTS

“A delicious, quaffable effort that’s loaded with sweet cherries, watermelon and citrus aromas and flavors, the 2012 Sangiovese Rose is medium-bodied, plump, fruity and supple, with a delicious, hard to resist feel and a clean, dry finish.”

88 Points

“Light and silky, with pretty watermelon and lime blossom flavors, finishing dry with finesse.”

-Harvey Steiman, Aug. 2012

Wine Spectator

2012 Gold Medalist

WATERBROOK - World Class Wine from Washington State

• Founded in 1984, Waterbrook is one of Walla Walla’s founding wineries

• 20 Wine Spectator 90+ Rated Wines